John Overcomes All Obstacles To Arrive at Party a Week Late

By VERA C. WRIGHT
FR 2-2288

"So sorry" are the two words that John Weiss Sr. has been hearing for the last month. After a year of not going out with the boys he decides to attend a "stag" affair only to find out that wife had not remembered to launder his white shirts. After borrowing one he discovered that he could not locate a tie and, after borrowing a tie, I think some little elf maneuvered some of his finances out of his wallet. Last but not least, after all this he discovered he had a flat tire but even this did not stop him for in less than 10 minutes he had taken care of the flat tire and was on his way to an evening of merriment. Upon arriving at his destination he drove around for another half hour in order to find a parking space. After dashing madly to the door with his ticket in his hand, he discovered that the party had been held the previous week! It is no wonder that Mr. Weiss went fishing the following week end! Sometimes it doesn't pay to get up in the morning!

Mrs. Paul W. Herring, Mrs. A. L. MacKenzie, Mrs. Glenn Blake, Mrs. William Wright, Mrs. L. LeFrancis, Mrs. Erich Schuster, Mrs. Delno Hart,

Mrs. Jeanne Meyers, Mrs. D. Breckon, Mrs. Kenneth McVey, Mrs. Glen Runstad and Mrs. Jerry Westmoreland joined in the gateway of the Christmas party of the North Torrance Canasta Lassies at the 18305 Westmoreland chalet where hostess Mrs. Malcolm Hooker greeted guests promptly at 7 p.m. on Monday, Dec. 10. Original poems written by the guests and gifts were given to Claudine R. Blake and Alyce MacKenzie for the cleverest and most genteel! A buffet supper was first on the evening's agenda with three games of canasta next on the program. Everyone enjoyed "Blake's Extra Special Repertoire." An exchange of gifts followed with coffee, cake and cookies. Naomi McVey, veteran of the canasta first prize with Jeanne Meyers taking home booby prize. Guessing games provided Theresse Schuster with a vase and clinch ash tray while others won Christmas corsages. Admiration was expressed toward the den that the party was held in for Mr. Westmoreland just finished the large picture windows and finished the hardwood flooring! Ambitious gentleman.

Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. Charles T. Hynes (Frances) who has been unable to escape the flu bug although she has put up a fair struggle at her 18321 Roslin Ave. home-stead.

Lucky 13-year-old Doris Lansing not only had her two best friends, Joy Adams and Betty Allen, helping her celebrate her birthday on Saturday, Dec. 8, but all three received baby orchid corsages and were taken to dinner at a Hollywood restaurant. Viewing a film was next with even a game of miniature golf before heading for home and snuggling up in her brand new gift pajamas and a cup of hot chocolate.

The March of Dimes is well on its organizational way with a meeting being held at McMaster Hall for the purpose of distribution of material for workers and an inspirational speech by Mrs. M. Clark of the head office.

With windows, doors, and front yards taking on a Christmas look with their many fancy trimmings, it is a sight to see "Old Glory," our American flag, waving in front of various homes during the week of Dec. 9-15 for that is Bill of Rights week, remember?

Can't help but relate this incident for it happens so seldom these days! Mrs. Hannah

Johnson, a resident of Azusa who is 80 years young, had been visiting in Lomita and was on her way home when she lost her purse containing all the money she has in the world. She was much surprised after getting off at the wrong bus stop to discover a passenger who had accidentally picked the bag up by mistake, riding up to her in a cab to return her goods. I don't mind admitting that I used the hankie just before handing it over to Mrs. Hannah who was completely overwhelmed!

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Silverman upon their 21st wedding anniversary. Although they were unable to celebrate on their particular date, they picked the following Saturday for an evening of dining and dancing at the Moulin Rouge with their good friends, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Moore.

Happiest youngsters in our community are those two who busily making a pound of fudge, divinity, penuche, among the many favorite kinds of candy that their parents like and hiding it whenever their parents go out these evenings. The 10-year-old daughter and the 12-year-old son are determined to end up with 20 pounds of candy for their parents for a Christmas present. If you have a 10-year-old daughter and a 12-year-old son, won't you please go out more often so these two can complete their gift! Hope this will do the trick, kids.

"Ohs" and "ahs" galore were heard from all directions at a recent party when guests viewed the excitingly beautiful jewelry worn by Alice MacKenzie. Naomi McVey represented the brunettes and Claudine Blake the blondes, both receiving much favorable comment also with their red dresses. Another blonde also gaining favorable glances was Jeanne Meyers wearing a light green lame outfit which went perfectly with her dazzling tresses.

Scout Troop 967, sponsored by the El Nido PTA, is selling Christmas trees at the corner of 190th and Hawthorne Blvd. and it would be nice to show the boys that you are backing them in this project by patronizing their lot.
